

THE FOOD FOR THOUGHT, GREEK AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S NETWORK
THE CYPRUS COMMUNITY WOMEN'S CULTURAL GROUP & THE GREEK-AUSTRALIAN CULTURAL LEAGUE

proudly present

What every woman should know
Greek Women's Health Forum

Presented by:
Dr Helen Zorbas

Dr Helen Zorbas, MBBS FASBP, is Director of the National Breast Cancer Centre (NBCC). She has been responsible for directing a number of key national projects and programs in evidence-based practice, clinical guidelines, monitoring, service improvement and psychosocial support to improve cancer care.

Helen is also a practicing breast physician and has a staff specialist appointment at the Rachel Foster Breast Clinic, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney.

Dr Zorbas will talk about

What every woman should know:
the facts about breast and ovarian cancer

Date: Sunday 27 May 2007

Time: 3.00 -5.00 pm

Venue: The Cypriot Community of Melbourne and Victoria
495 Lygon Street, Brunswick

Bi-lingual information packs will be given to all attendees.

This is a free event. Refreshments will be on offer.
RSVP essential