

Torches and shining stars

What is the light that women have shed on the Olympics in present and ancient times?

This question and more will be explored at the next function of the Food For Thought Network

INVITATION
OPEN TO ALL

Date : Friday 25 June
Time : 7.00 p.m - 11.00 p.m

Keynote speaker is Sally Carbon

Sally Carbon OAM is a star gold medallist hockey player from the 1998 Seoul Olympics. She is a professional journalist, marketer and educator. Sally has won many awards for services to sport, from the promotion of sport through to coaching and volunteerism. She is married to AFL Coach Michael Broadbridge and has three children Jason, Ashley and Kara.

She has also written a children's book, "I Want to be an Olympian" to be launched in July.

Venue: Yiannis Tavern, Kew, (Separate function Room upstairs)
Cost: Meal & development, Members $35.00, Non Members $45.00 (The extra $10 allows you to become a member so you need only pay this once in a year) $20.00 students, pensioners and unemployed.

Feel free to invite your family and friends. Make it a special night and get into the spirit of the Olympics.

We look forward to seeing old members and welcoming new ones.

RSVP essential COB 20 June.

To: Varvara Ioannou, Food for Thought Network
Mob: 0403 034 527 E-mail: vioannou@pacific.net.au

Food For Thought Network: a not for profit network, empowering women in the areas of work, family, language, culture, health and well-being.